

A Blue Ribbon Affair

To Benefit: The Clay House Children's Center

Friday, August 6th, 2010

From 7:00- 10:00 pm at the Wynfrey Hotel

Dear Friend,

The Clay House is designed to be a "homelike" atmosphere for physical and sexual abuse victims to receive intervention and treatment. This non-profit center provides a non-threatening, child-friendly approach for the comfort and safety of child victims.

The Clay House coordinates the community agencies that investigate abuse allegations. A multi-disciplinary team consisting of the District Attorney's office, DHR, Law Enforcement, Clay House staff, and medical professionals coordinate services to assure that all cases of suspected abuse are thoroughly investigated. This multi-disciplinary team will also determine whether or not to prosecute the offender depending on the child's disclosure and evidence. All of our services are provided at no cost to the child victim's families.

SUPPORTED BY ADECA/LETS

The Clay House has helped 100s of children and their families in Jefferson County. So, as you can see, it is a valuable resource for our community and relies on grant money and donations for its funding.

You can make a difference in the life of a child abuse victim by supporting the annual Blue Ribbon Affair, a "Silent Auction", at the Wynfrey Hotel on August 6, 2010. We are looking for donations to help us in this effort and host a successful silent auction. Any item(s) that you are able to donate will not go unnoticed or unappreciated.

Thank you so much for your time and consideration. We look forward to talking with you; and, we look forward to working with you to prevent child abuse right here in Jefferson County and statewide. It is only by working hand in hand with citizens within the community and local businesses that we can make this year's Blue Ribbon Affair the best yet!

With gratitude,

Heather Locklar
Clay House Junior Board President
